JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The court inquires as to whether there is any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the court, the court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered as follows:

Defendant is committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of twelve (12) months and one (1) day. The court recommends to the Bureau of Prisons that defendant be placed in an institution located in Lompoc, California.

Defendant shall receive credit for time served in immigration custody from June 10, 2015, through November 4, 2015.

Defendant shall surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12:00 p.m. on January 6, 2017. In the absence of such a designation, defendant shall surrender on or before the same date and time to the United States Marshal located at the Roybal Federal Building, 255 East Temple Street, Los Angeles, California 90012. Upon surrender, defendant's bond is ordered exonerated.

After defendant is released from custody, he shall be placed on supervised release for a term of one (1) year under the following terms and conditions:

1. Defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 05-02.
2. Defendant shall not commit any violation of local, state, or federal law or ordinance.
3. Defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. As directed by the Probation Officer, defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month.

USA vs. RAUL RODRIGUEZ VERA

Docket No.: CR 15-0555 FMO

4. Defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. Defendant shall abstain from using alcohol and illicit drugs, and from abusing prescription medications, during the period of supervision.
5. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of defendant and defense counsel, may place defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer.
6. As directed by the Probation Officer, defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's drug and alcohol dependency to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. Defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer.
7. During the period of community supervision, defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with the judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
8. Defendant shall comply with the immigration rules and regulations of the United States, and if deported from this country, either voluntarily or involuntarily, not re-enter the United States illegally. Defendant is not required to report to the Probation Office while residing outside of the United States; however, within 72 hours of release from any custody or any reentry to the United States during the period of court-ordered supervision, defendant shall report for instructions to the U.S. Probation Office located at the United States Court House, 312 North Spring Street, Room 600, Los Angeles, California 90012.
9. When not employed or excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons, defendant shall perform 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation Officer.
10. Defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport, or any other form of identification in any name other than defendant's true legal name; nor shall defendant use, for any purpose or in any manner, any name other than his true legal name or names without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.
11. Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from defendant.

Defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

All fines are waived as the Court finds that defendant is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
